

To The Former Gallery Guards,

My name is Danny, as you know I was supposed to be protecting the Starry Night painting last night and it was stolen by the group of people that somehow got past me. If the curator finds out this happened I'll be arrested immediately. You are far better at this sort of thing than I. Could you please find out who took this painting for me. You've only got until 8:45 before the curator arrives for work.

Before I assist you with finding the missing painting, I want to ensure I'm asking the right people for the job. Solve this riddle promptly so I know I'm not wasting my time.

*Thanks,
Danny*
